Joint Base Langley-Eustis provides information and referral to military families. Also provides personal financial readiness information; relocation readiness program; family services program (services to spouses of deployed service members); employment readiness program; and more.

Individuals receiving Army Emergency Relief Loans are required to repay the loan amount (interest free). Grants are made when it is found that repayment would cause undue hardship.

The Army Community Service Center is organized by the military. Food Stamp information is provided for individuals. A loan closet has available dishes, baby cribs, kitchen Utensil, etc. All of the counseling is done by paid staff.
