Goodwill's programs and services are designed to help individuals with barriers and disabilities find employment through basic job-related services. Goodwill's Employment Specialists and Case Managers will put together a customized plan of service for each individual seeking help and will continue to work with each individual once they are employed.

Equal access to Horizon Goodwill Industries' programs and services is available to any person with proof of a qualifying disability or disadvantaging condition who is legally eligible for employment.

Fill out the "Online Application for Services" on the website. The Training options include discovering your career, developing your skills, finding the job you want, and specialty programs, such as:

- Parent Employment Program
- Employment Connections
- Developmental and Pre-Vocational Programs
- Community Access
