HomeAgain operates an emergency shelter. The Men's Emergency Shelter provides a temporary safe haven for approximately 20 single men who are experiencing a housing crisis. Eight beds are dedicated to serving U.S. Military Veterans.

To facilitate success in finding and keeping housing, men receive individualized case management, resource referrals, and help with finding employment and housing. This facility also provides transitional housing for up to 8 honorably discharged U.S. veterans, who are on their way to exiting the program.

If you are in need of shelter, contact the Homeless Crisis Line at 804-972-0813.

HomeAgain offers assistance in securing steady income and searching for housing while helping to identify any barriers to success. HomeAgain provides substance abuse counseling to help clients struggling with addiction and financial training to prevent crises in the future.
