Richmond Behavioral Health Authority (RBHA) Clinicians and Case Managers are responsible for placing consumers with substance abuse issues in appropriate levels of care which may include monitoring consumer progress and participation through a continuum of treatment services. Services may be provided by community-based programs under contract with RBHA. Staff communicate with referral sources regarding individual treatment plans, treatment progress and treatment plan modifications. Follow-up efforts to re-engage consumers who drop-out of treatment programs are also provided by the case management staff.
