Highlands Community Services' Substance Abuse Services consists of group and individual therapy sessions that occur one to three times per week. Group sessions are made up of several tracts for men, women, and adolescents. These tracts focus on a variety of specialty concentrations:

- Relapse prevention planning;
- Support system development;
- Trauma treatment;
- Co-occurring mental health and substance abuse disorder treatment;
- Relationship and communication skill building;
- Coping skill development;
- Anger management.
