Linkitall (LIA) is a certified Service-Disabled Veteran, Woman-owned Small Business located in Virginia. The transition from military to civilian can be a long journey and stressful. Our team of professionals will guide and provide helpful tools to get you through real life situations.

Counselors provide a supportive working relationship; staff helps translating military terminology into civilian terminology.

Our company has consistently provided exceptional services to the government and non-profit organizations such as the Department of Labor and the Northern Virginia Workforce Investment Board (Skill Source Group).

LIA's team of professionals are leaders in their field and represent over 10 years of experience in document preparation, staffing support, human resource management, employment consulting, customer service, providing professional personnel to government agencies, and delivering high quality service.

Our network enables consumers and businesses to access informational and technology services, in one, centralized location (e.g. educational, social media, employment, and military transitional services).
