Pearls Center of Hope (proposes services which are client-centered and focused on helping survivors and families of substance addiction rebuild their lives through counseling services.

Pearls (People Entering Another Realm of Love Safely) offers substance abuse and addiction programs. Treatment counselors provide professionally directed evaluation, treatment and recovery services to persons with substance related disorders.

We support the disadvantaged, those with low-income, children of ex-offenders and the homeless who have been abused, neglected, adjudicated, delinquent, maladjusted, and maltreated. We endeavor to offer counseling services for all our clients.
