Easterseals Veteran Staffing Network (VSN) is a non-profit staffing agency helping our nation's veterans and military spouses find long-term, meaningful employment. They serve anyone who has worn the uniform, including National Guard and Reserve members.

The team of career coaches and recruiters help with many skills such as:

- translating military experience to the civilian workforce
- creating an individual career development plan
- writing a powerful resume
- sharpening interview skills and much more to connect you with the right employment opportunity.
