NAMI Rappahannock offers a Peer Support program. This program is a free, eight-session educational program for adults with mental health conditions who are looking to better understand themselves and their recovery. The program is taught by trained leaders with lived experience, this program includes activities, discussions and informative videos. However, as with all NAMI programs, it does not include recommendations for treatment approaches.

NAMI Peer-to-Peer is a safe, confidential space. The course provides an opportunity for mutual support and growth.

If you are in a crisis situation, please call 911 or the National Suicide Lifeline at 800-273-TALK (8255).
