

Health Care

Supporting your loved one's health involves daily planning and advocating for their health care needs. This section includes helpful tools such as caregiver checklists for health appointments, strategies for dealing with a health crisis, and managing medications.

View PDF