At Prince William County Community Services, the Emergency Services Crisis Intervention Program responds on a 24-hour basis to the members of our community while providing intervention to those experiencing a crisis related to behavioral health, substance use and developmental disabilities.

Call for assistance:

- Manassas: 703-792-7800
- Woodbridge: 703-792-4900.

The following services are offered:

- crisis intervention;
- emergency evaluations to determine the need for inpatient psychiatric admission or substance abuse detoxification;
- short term outpatient treatment.

Staff members also advise magistrates regarding the need for temporary involuntary inpatient treatment and can provide testimony at civil commitment hearings and make arrangements for further hospitalization and treatment.
