Cold Weather Shelter is offered from November 15 through March of each year for adults age 18 and older. The shelter provides a warm place to stay for individuals who have no shelter or are homeless. The shelter is open from 9 pm until 7 am including holidays and weekends and is open to any member of the Loudoun community. Individuals must have a photo ID. Call the Hypothermia Shelter at 571-258-3033 for more information.

There are the following shelters in Loudoun County:

- Good Shepherd Alliance (Single women and families) - Phone: 703-724-1555
- Loudoun Abused Women's Shelter (Domestic violence victims) - Phone: 703-777-6552
- Loudoun County Youth Shelter - Phone: 703-771-5300
- Loudoun Emergency Homeless Shelter (Single adults and families) - Phone: 703-777-0420

The Transitional Housing Shelter provides housing and supportive services for homeless families (including single parents with children) and single individuals. The program length is 24 months. Case management includes services and classes designed to help participants obtain and remain in permanent housing, increase their skills and income, and achieve greater self-determination.

Applications are primarily through the Department of Family Services, 703-777-0353 or referrals can be coordinated through the program operator, Volunteers of America, 703-771-5429.
