The Concern Hotline is a free telephone service providing a crisis-intervention, suicide prevention, and information and referral hotline. All calls are confidential, non-judgmental and anonymous. Concern, a non-profit community crisis intervention service, serves isolated and disadvantaged populations, including the elderly, terminally ill, homeless and chronically mentally ill. Many other individuals need someone with whom they can talk on a one-time basis and may not need to seek additional assistance.

The hotline number is 540-667-0145.

If you are in crisis call the 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline. 988 is a national network of local crisis centers that can provide free and confidential emotional support to those in suicidal crisis or emotional distress. 988 is available 24 hours a day, Lifeline Chat is a service of the 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline.
