The ACTS Beverly Warren Emergency Homeless Shelter provides emergency short-term housing to families and singles. Serves up to 18. Room and board are free; the shelter is open 24 hours a day for single females or families with children. Services include intensive case management, life skills training, and computer access for job and housing search. The ultimate goal of our program is the clients' self-sufficiency.

If you are

- Homeless
- Facing eviction
- Living on the street
- Living in an unsuitable for human habitation facility

Case managers offer guidance in applying for assistance to become self-sufficient, find permanent housing, and limited employment services, including Social Security and SNAP.

The Beverly Warren Facility is located at 17866 Main Street, Dumfries, VA 22026, call 703-221-3188 for more information.
