The Virginia Beach Community Development Corporation provides affordable rental housing opportunities for low to moderate income persons, the elderly, persons with severe mental health disabilities, persons with developmental disabilities and formerly homeless or disabled veterans. These programs provide qualified households with rental rates that are below market, ensuring that individuals and families are not rent-burdened.

The rental homes are located throughout the city, including in Lake Edward, Green Run, Northridge, Princess Anne Plaza, Indian Lakes, Campus East, and Rosemont Forest.
