The Greater Lynchburg Transit Company (GLTC) operates local public bus routes within the City of Lynchburg and a portion of Madison Heights, Visit the website for Fares and Passes and Rider Guide. Bus operators cannot make change. Exact fare is required.

The Customer Service Center is located at 800 Kemper Street adjacent to Kemper Street Amtrak Station. The facility provides easy access to all patrons from rail to pedestrians and even bicyclists from the Kemper Station Trail. Besides bus transfers, the station services include selling GLTC tickets or passes, applying for discount fares, helping with special services or making a comment or complaint,

GLTC also provides accessible Paratransit Services (PTS) for persons with disabilities that prevent them from using traditional fixed-route bus services. For Americans with Disabilities Act paratransit information call (434) 455-5099. The applicant paratransit application is available on the website, as is the Health Care Professional Verification form

An application for a half-fare ID card can be found at the Transfer Station at 800 Kemper Street. To qualify, an individual can be age 65 or older, have a Medicare card, or have a disability that prevents using bus service.
