Linkitall (LIA) offers counseling to help individuals return to school and receive skills they need to better their lives.

The team at LIA is knowledgeable about financial aid, G.I. Bill and certifications. Whether you are a soldier looking for G.I. Bill information, or a prospective student needing some assistance with financial aid, we can conduct the research, gather the information and send it to you so you can fulfill your educational needs.

Having a good education is not only important to one's success in life, but also in finding and keeping a job.

LIA's team of professionals are leaders in their field and represent over 10 years of experience in document preparation, staffing support, human resource management, employment consulting, customer service, providing professional personnel to government agencies, and delivering high quality service.

Our network enables consumers and businesses to access informational and technology services, in one, centralized location (e.g. educational, social media, employment, and military transitional services).

LIA is a certified Service-Disabled Veteran, Woman-owned Small Business located in Virginia. Our company has consistently provided exceptional services to the government and non-profit organizations such as the Department of Labor and the Northern Virginia Workforce Investment Board (Skill Source Group).
