The Veteran Reintegration Program provides intensive care for transitioning active-duty servicemen/women, veterans and families by facilitating assistance with claims and services they are entitled to including but not limited to: employment services, housing, education, financial management, and life-skills training.

Further, this program also facilitates substance abuse treatment, general counseling, transportation, workshops pertaining to job search techniques, and assistance overcoming other barriers to permanent employment.

This program's intent is to bring the client to a place of self-sufficiency and healthy civilian, societal interdependence.
