Recreational Therapy³ offers goal-oriented therapy to individuals with multiple diagnoses and delivers individualized services based on each person's past, present, and future interests and lifestyle. Customizing a treatment plan that encompasses social, cognitive, physical, and leisure needs is vital to a successful program. Healthy living is encouraged and promoted to ensure not only improved function but also to enhance independence and successful involvement in all aspects of life.

Melissa Long is a graduate of the University of Southern Maine with a B.S. in Therapeutic Recreation and Leisure Studies and a minor in Health Studies. Melissa has been providing care to older adults for 16+ years. Melissa is a certified recreational therapist, certified dementia practitioner and has been providing services through Recreational Therapy³ since 2016. Melissa is also a Licensed BCAT® practitioner.
