Event Description

Attorney General Mark Herring will host a free legal clinic for veterans on Wednesday, June 28, 2017, 9am until 4pm, in Brown Library at Virginia Western Community College. Veterans can register for one-hour time slots on a first come, first served-basis. Walk ups will NOT be accepted. The first pro bono veterans legal services clinic can help with wills, powers of attorney, advance medical directives (simple wills) - no tax or estate planning. You must be a veteran or spouse/partner of a veteran. Must have a DD214; must be a Virginia resident. Your income and assets must demonstrate that you do not have access to readily available attorney representation for estate planning and are eligible to receive pro bono legal services. An application must be completed before attendance. See URL below for a downloadable application. You will be contacted after the application is received.
