Mobility management is coordinating transportation services and providers to meet individual customer needs. The Greater Richmond Transit Company (GRTC) offers several mobility services, including paratransit and flexible schedule, fixed public routes, ride-sharing and commuting, and CARE and CARE Plus.

Local Riders - GRTC's local bus service operates in many areas in the City of Richmond and Henrico County and parts of Chesterfield County, from 5:00 am until 1:00 am daily, seven days a week. Accessibility Information

Express Riders - GRTC's Express Routes operate on weekdays to transport riders to and from work quickly while helping to minimize congestion.

Specialized Transportation - The Specialized Transportation division supports four services, CARE, CARE Plus, and CARE On-Demand.

Travel Training Program - GRTC's Travel Training Program provides riders, 15 years of age or older, the opportunity to learn skills that will enable them to follow a GRTC bus route.

Commuter Vanpools - GRTC partners with RideFinders, a division of GRTC and a regional non-profit agency, which can help you start a vanpool.

RideFinders - Learn more about programs and services for commuters and employers to support carpooling, vanpooling, transit, teleworking, walking, and biking.
