Event Description

The Legacy Interviews is our newest American Society on Aging (ASA) Studios Production. This 12-week webcast series will feature interviews with diverse legendary pathfinders who have spent decades in the field of aging, health and social services. Each interview will be conducted by Ken Dychtwald, to capture the wisdom and character of gerontology's pioneers to inform, inspire and guide current and future professionals in the fields of aging and related services for years to come. These conversations will delve into topics such as: How our healthcare, financial, social services and infrastructure systems can better support older adults and their caregivers; Ageism in the workplace, politics, media and popular culture; The opportunities and obligations of today's and tomorrow's elders; Badge IconThe individual, social and systemic dimensions of diversity and equity. Register for free to watch all 12 episodes and earn a digital badge from ASA and USC's Leonard Davis School of Gerontology. NOTE: All episodes air live on the dates below at 1:00 pm Pacific/4:00 pm Eastern.
