Event Description

Kick-off National Disability Voter Registration Week (NDVRW) with REV UP Virginia and Commissioner Christopher Piper, Virginia Department of Elections REV UP (Register! Educate! Vote! Use your Power!) Virginia is a non-partisan voter engagement initiative aimed at increasing the power and influence of the disability vote to effectuate meaningful change. This statewide disability voting coalition is comprised of interested individuals and representatives from diverse disability organizations and ally groups working together to collectively advance the disability vote in the Commonwealth. To ensure more disabled Virginian voters' voices are heard this November and in future elections, please consider joining REV UP Virginia. To join, please email REVUpVirginia@gmail.com. REV UP Virginia is part of the national REV UP Campaign coordinated by the American Association of People with Disabilities. You can also email oea.net.post@ssa.gov for information.
