Paralyzed Veterans of America, Roanoke (PVA) is a membership for individuals who are citizens of the United States or its territories; are veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces and whose discharge was other than dishonorable; AND who have a spinal cord injury or disease (SCI/D).

PVA membership opens up a world of programs and services designed to help you live your best life: assistance with your earned VA benefits; help with employment and higher education; sports and recreation opportunities; and a window into our important research and advocacy efforts.
