

Veterans returning to the community may have short term injuries or have disabilities. Home modifications may be needed and include structural changes, repairs and/or equipment to improve home accessibility and safety.

---

View PDF