

Ride app services include ridesharing and transportation network companies like Uber or Lyft. These companies provide prearranged ground transportation that is booked on an app or website and connects passengers with drivers who use their own non-commercial vehicles.

---

View PDF