

Advocacy and Appreciation

Learn how Veterans and their families can advocate to ensure they receive the benefits and supports that they need to fully participate in their communities. Explore community resources, service organizations, volunteer groups, and organizations that honor and support Veterans.

---

View PDF

Article

Veterans Day Facts and Information

Veterans Day is always observed officially on November 11, and is the day set aside to thank and honor ALL those who served honorably in the military – in wartime or peacetime.

Source

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Article

Podcasts on Veterans' Issues Fill the Airwaves with Important Messages

Veterans can benefit from assorted types of media outreach that familiarize them with their issues of concern. Whether it's by video, radio or podcast platforms, there's never a shortage of topics to communicate to Veterans.

Source

VA News

Links

Operation Gratitude

Source

Operation Gratitude

Links

Troopster

Source

Troopster

Links

Wheels for Warriors

Source

Wheels for Warriors

Article

Holiday Mail for Heroes

The Holiday Mail for Heroes program is now Holidays for Heroes. This change allows local Red Cross offices to identify and engage in a variety of activities that thank and recognize members of the military and veterans living in our communities.

Source

American Red Cross

Article

Directory of Veterans Service Organizations

Are you looking for a Veterans Service Organization or representation? This directory and/or online search may help you.

Source

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Links

Gary Sinise Foundation

Source

Gary Sinise Foundation

Showing 1-8 of 8 Results